

Merry Christmas!

Message from the Chairman

This festive season provides an opportunity to spend time with our families and friends, reflect on the past year and look forward to a new year full of promise and opportunity. This is a time for us to pause, draw breath and refresh ourselves for the New Year ahead, thanking God for all the graces which he has granted our families and our organisation in 2008.

Every day you carry out your duties on behalf of Amalgamated Security and YOU, the members of the ASSL family at all levels, truly are our most valuable resource. We continue to be blessed by the high quality of people who choose to serve our organisation and I want to thank you for your hard work this year. I thank each and every one of you for your enthusiasm, your professionalism and the sacrifices you make each and every day. I will go further to say that I thank your families and loved ones who contribute so much to our mission by supporting you in the work you do.

Uncertain times are ahead of us, with high levels of crime and the unstable economy in our Beloved country. Managing your money in this time can be difficult but I promote to you to be strategic with your spending and ensure that your families are kept safe and aware. You have a bright future in this organisation and please be assured that we are weathering the storm and steering the ship in the right direction with you all as vital members of our crew. I encourage you to find out about the many opportunities which we offer our employees for growth in ALL FIELDS, with regards training and development. This is a commitment that we make as an organisation in not only BEING THE BEST, but also EMPLOYING THE BEST!

Quality, Health & Safety is on the top of our agenda for 2009 as we are gearing towards improving the quality of our service not only to our customers but to all of our employees.

As 2008 draws to a close, we can look back on another demanding but rewarding year in ASSL, a year in which we have made significant progress here at Amalgamated Security, but one from which challenges remain that look as daunting as ever. We look forward to facing these challenges head on in 2009, paying special attention to the tenderness of the past, with courage for the present and hope for the future.

This year marks the 25th Anniversary of Amalgamated Security Services Ltd. , OUR beloved organisation and I would like to "SALUTE YOU ALL": Salute you all for your support and commitment to this organisation, something that we have all worked hard to build!

To Our Directors, All members of the Executive staff, Management and Middle Management, Field Staff and Officers, I acknowledge that our Company would not be the success that it is today without you. With all your support, I look forward to our Company's stride in 2009.

My family and I wish you and yours a very blessed holiday season with health and prosperity for the New Year!
